

CHARGED WITH ARSON

Fourteen Solid Blocks of Buildings in Ruins...One Life Lost.

Former Waiters at Albatross Hotel Held for the Crime. Things Were Getting Dull on the Island and It Was Well Livened Up.

New York, Nov. 2.—Fourteen solid blocks of buildings in ruins, one life lost, two score persons injured, five persons homeless and a financial loss of $1,500,000 is the outcome of an alleged drunken freak which resulted in the fire at Coney and yesterday.

Frank Connolly, twenty-seven years old, and Peter Skelley, thirty-eight years old, former waiters in the Albatross hotel at Sheephead walk, and Edward Bovey, are locked up, charged with arson on the strength of a statement made by Barney Wolfe, proprietor of a hotel on the island. Wolfe said that on Friday night, Connolly and Skelley, in the presence of a crowd, set fire to the buildings and said that things were getting dull on the island, and they believed they would liven things up with a fire.

Wolfe said he saw them start a fire, which was put out. Again yesterday, he asserts, they started a second fire, and he arrived just as the flames shot up, but he was unable to control them, and he gave the alarm.

When he saw his own place go up like tinder, and heard that his brother-in-law had his skull fractured by leaping from a window to save himself, he told the police of Connolly and Skelley. The story of the alleged incendiarism was all over the island, while the flames were at their height and feeling against Connolly and Skelley, ran high.

Today there is a great scarcity of food, on the island, and hundreds are suffering for the ordinary needs of life.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 2.—Though the campaign in Maryland practically ended on Saturday night, there will be more republican rally today.

Stevenson A. Williams, the republican candidate for governor, and other candidates on the republican state ticket, will address a meeting at Crisfield, on the eastern shore.

Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the republican state central committee, chairman Jno. B. Hanna, of the republican committee, have issued addresses to their respective parties, in a strong appeal is made to support the party nominees.

Tomorrow's election, the polls will be opened at 6 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. The Australian system of voting in force. Both parties are expected to have a full vote, and an orderly election. Marshall Farnham, police department, announced that the whole police force will be on duty at the polls.

Democrats Confident.
Mass., Nov. 2.—The day before election, the managers of both parties, after the rather strenuous campaign of last week are practically at ease for the opening of the polls. Democrats expressed confidence they would carry the state.

Democrats Claim State.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 2.—The political leaders of the state were making final arrangements today for tomorrow's balloting. The republican campaign was concluded Sunday night. Then the final rally of the democrats will be held with Gov. Garvin, Congressman Grainger, and others as speakers.

Today, the democrats were claiming the state by 2,000 and the house by a small majority, while the republicans were counting on from 5,000 to 7,000 plurality for their candidates for governor and the control of both branches of the legislature by a safe margin.

Campaign Closed Sunday.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—Political parties in Nebraska are now ready for the battle of the ballots, having practically closed their campaign Sunday. No newspaper or the central committee chairman have ventured a serious estimate of the result of the election, and less interest has been manifested than for years. The election being for judiciary offices only, the vote is not expected to reach its normal proportions, and the registrations in many places, especially in Omaha, have been considerably below the vote polled last year.

Iowa Not Concerned.
Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 2.—Everything points to a light vote tomorrow, throughout the state. In addition to the apathy which exists the prediction for tomorrow is for rain. The state central committees of the republican and democratic parties are to be closed this afternoon. The republicans finish their campaign with a speech by Governor Cummins in Clinton tonight. J. B. Sullivan, the democratic candidate closed his fight at his home in Creston.

DAYLIGHT REVEALED A

Scene of Ruin as Result of Explosion of Car of Dynamite.

So Far as Learned No Lives Were Lost, Although Wreckage Has Not Been Thoroughly Searched for Victims.

Crestline, Ohio, Nov. 2.—The Penna. R. R. yards here, presented a scene of ruin when daylight came this morning as a result of the explosion of a car of dynamite on a side track last evening. So far as learned, no lives were lost, although the huge masses of wreckage from the cars have not yet been thoroughly searched. It is estimated that the financial loss will run from $400,000 to $500,000. Hundreds of freight cars were almost completely demolished, while a number of houses in the vicinity of the explosion were badly wrecked. A number of persons received serious cuts and bruises from flying glass. Nearly every window in town was smashed by the terrific concussion.

Mail Clerk Tells Story.

Mail clerk Kershaw, who was in Crestline, at the time of the explosion, has sent the Times-Democrat the following interesting account:

Last night about 8 o'clock, a car supposed to have contained dynamite, which was being made up in a west-bound freight in the Crestline yards, let go with full force. As a result, over 125 cars of merchandise are a total wreck, windows, doors, etc., are broken all over the city, and even some of the nearest houses are moved from their foundations. Galien suffered almost as much as Crestline, while Mansfield and Shelby will have to pay hundreds of dollars to replace the broken glass.

The explosion occurred just after the train had been made up, and the engine coupled on, how, no one seems to know. The yards at this place are ten tracks wide, and every track filled with loaded cars of all kinds of merchandise. They are all total wrecks, 200 yards east and west of where the car of explosive stood. Beneath is a hole 40 feet deep, 60 feet wide, and 150 feet long. The whole west end of the finest freight yards in Ohio, is a mass of twisted iron, broken cars and wrecked merchandise of all kinds. A car of fine china lies buried under tons of iron and coal.

So far as known, no lives were lost. The front brakeman was standing on top of the train, 5 cars back of the one that blew up. He lost his hat and lamp, but escaped without a scratch. A switchman who stood along side, was equally lucky.

The operator in the tower was cut with broken glass, and the assistant yard master was thrown across the tracks and severely bruised. A woman living a quarter of a mile away, was cut by flying glass, and an old woman, 68 years of age, who was milking in a stable, was pinioned beneath some loosened timbers, but not seriously injured. Scarcely a house in town escaped some damage. The Continental hotel is a complete wreck so far as windows and doors are concerned. Sash glass and plastering are all shattered to pieces.

In less than two hours, hundreds of people from Galien, Mansfield and Shelby, were on the ground, and they kept coming all the night through. All section men east and west were hurried there on special trains, and a train of provisions from Ft. Wayne, passed through Lima at 6:30 this morning. The fact that no lives were lost, is a miracle.

GLADSTONE VERY BITTER.

Elijah's Son Thinks American Newspapers Are Very Naughty Things.

Liverpool, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Dowie, wife of John Alexander Dowie, the Zionist leader, their son Gladstone Dowie, a lady's maid and a colored valet, arrived here today, from Boston, on the steamer Saxony, and were besieged by reporters. Mrs. Dowie, emphatically denied that she had Dowie's treasure chest with her, or that she intended to start a mission in London, and confirmed the reports that she will ultimately proceed to Australia, where Dowie will join her and conduct a great mission. Gladstone Dowie was very bitter in his denunciation of the American newspapers.

PACKAGE OF POWDERS FOUND IN HER POCKET.

Cuyahoga Falls, O., Nov. 2.—Miss Helen Carpenter, a dancing school teacher, who is well known here, and at Barberton, Kent and Ravenna, is seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cowen, north Second street. Her condition is so critical that the physicians are constantly at her side. Saturday, Miss Carpenter was in Barberton. She had attempted to organize a dancing class there, but had failed. Saturday night, she was found in an unconscious condition in a Kent and Ravenna car. She was taken to hospital. Several packages of white powder were found in her pockets.

JUDAS BELCH IS THE MARK

Given Him by an Old Republican Soldier of Putnam County.

Four Years Ago Belch's Political Allegiance Was in Putnam County Where He Teaches School--Plain Statement of His Treachery.

The following open letter, written by an old time republican soldier who a little before, portrays to a dot the character of the man Amos Belch, who asks the people of this county to send him to the legislature. It not only shows his political dealings with those of his own party, and especially unfavorable with the old soldier, but it even a fair presumption that he will do those things as a member of the legislature which will be best for the people.

With four thousand dollars sent in to this county, and that statement comes from a republican who knows, to be spent in electing Belch, who will control his legislative acts, the people, or the man Hanna, who furnished the "corruption fund." The latter of course.

The Letter.

Old Grove, O., Aug 12 1898

I deem it my duty to those who supported me for postmaster as well as any others who may feel interested to tell you how I became a candidate, and how I didn't succeed. In the first place as many of you are aware, I belonged to what was known as the "Tough" faction. We had concluded some time ago, that the republican party in this section was run by a special tax who directed just what we republicans should do, and if we didn't feel that way, we were "chickens." They wanted the right of way, and we were in the position of a candidate contrary to their will that it was their prerogative to turn him down at the election. We soon saw the necessity of playing the "other" side, so you see war was on, and the democrats profited. Well, I think that state of things prevailed pretty generally over the county, at any rate there was dissatisfaction over the county sufficient to enable us to succeed in electing Mr. David Powell, chairman of the county committee. So that was one great victory, as we supposed. Well, now Mr. Charles Jones and Mr. Ed. J. Vail, two of our most bitter factional enemies, were the only candidates here for postmaster. I thought it a favorable opportunity to make a successful race on the principle, you know, as Jackson said, "to the victor belongs the spoils." I spoke to my friends, and they encouraged me to make the race. I went to see Powell and he said to me that he had told Vail that he would endorse no candidate before the election on account of probably making discord whereas he desired harmony, but he would say one thing to me, and that was that he would endorse no candidate.

Mind your doctor. He says: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs."

MERCURY A POOR CRUTCH.

Experience is a dear teacher, as those who pin their faith to Mercury find out sooner or later. This powerful poison combined with Potash, is the treatment generally prescribed for Contagious Blood Poison, but failure and disappointment is the inevitable result. These minerals drive in the sores and eruptions, and apparently the disease is gone and the patient believes the cure permanent, but soon learns better when the old symptoms return almost as soon as the treatment is left off. You must either keep the system saturated with mercury or endure the tortures of sore mouth, ulcerated throat and the mortification that one naturally feels when the body is covered with disgusting sores, rashes, copper-colored spots and other aggravating symptoms of this vile disease.

Mercury and Potash are poor crutches, and their use eventually breaks down the constitution, ruins the digestion and cause the bones to decay. S. S. S., a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, is the only antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It destroys every atom of the deadly virus, overcomes the bad effects of the mercury and cleanses the blood and system so thoroughly that never after are any signs of the disease seen. Nor is the taint ever transmitted to others. We will send free our book on Contagious Blood Poison, which is interesting and contains full directions for treating yourself at home. Medical advice or any special information desired given without charge.

postoffice, and was going to get it if I could honorably. The conversation would wind up with the assurance that they would stay by me to the end. I made frequent visits to Powell to report what I was doing, and receive instructions and any suggestions he might make. When he got able to go to his office, he claimed that he had worked so hard that he had not had time to write his indorsement, but assured me I would have it as soon as he could possibly take the time to write it. Now, this went with me all right for a time, but I finally became suspicious, and so reported to Belch and Lafferty, and they laughed at the idea. I told them there was something wrong, and that I believed Powell's head had been turned. I insisted so strong that finally one Friday night, they agreed to go. I told them that they might look out for a fight, but I wanted them to stay by me and demand the paper as he stated to them as well as me, and that I didn't want them to go down and sell me out. I gave them one dollar to pay their car fare, and we parted. I went to Lafferty's office in the morning to learn the result. Lafferty handed me 10 cents, the fare being 90 cents. I asked what success they had. Well, he replied, you and Vail will have to get together and you take the deputyship. I replied that I was not after the deputyship, and said, "You fellows went down and sold me out, did you?" and some language that would not be proper to write. They said Vail was the strongest man and they must beat Jones. I asked him how he knew that Vail was the strongest man, and he virtually replied that it was none of my business. I said before they went that far they should have called me, so we could have compared strength. Lafferty replied that they did not want me there. Now, whether Lafferty and Belch ever indorsed Vail or not, I do not know, but one thing is sure, they told Powell to, and there was where the power lay, because the most honest of my success rested with Powell, because Powell told me and them also that Foraker had told him that whoever Powell indorsed, he would recommend, and Foraker would have proved faithful to his agreement with Powell. If Powell had indorsed me, Foraker would also have done so. That would have been half the battle won. If Hanna had not indorsed me, then it would have gone to the president, and I felt sure of success with him on account of personal acquaintance, letters, etc., from his and my own personal friends at Canton, and I felt sure that my indorsement by the people would have gone a great ways with him, but you see Foraker's indorsement through Powell, and Hanna's indorsement through Matthews, fixed Vail all right. After they, Lafferty and Belch had told Powell, I went down to see him about his unfaithfulness. He said he couldn't help it, and didn't want to shift responsibilities, but my friends had advised it. I asked him to what class of men he belonged, and where shall he be placed. A man who would make such promises as he did to me, and then do otherwise, surely belonged to a class of people whom I would not wish to be amongst. He replied somewhat feelingly that there is no honor in politics. I replied that it seemed there was no honor in some men assuming to be politicians, but I thought that the honorable politician would be most likely to succeed. Now, some people may say I ought not to have trusted these men so far. Some very good men have told me that they would not, they knew them too well. Why should not I have trusted Lafferty and Belch? I had always been faithful to them in politics and every other way. All of us are bound by the most solemn obligations to faithfulness, Lafferty, a very eminent member of church as well as in church has frequently been heard to say that he was never converted, but was born a Christian. Belch had been so completely whipped by the Vidette that he had not the least suspicion of his turning tail and fleeing to the aid of his enemy. His conduct is a complete illustration of the old adage, whip a dog and he will love you. Now, do not understand me to say that Belch is a dog. I think he is a man in some respects, but he lacks the qualities of true manhood. My experience with Powell and what I have learned of his administration of his office as Chairman, it appeared to me that he worked on the principle that his friends he had, and it was policy for him to make friends of his enemies. Now I have often wondered why so many formerly good republicans, men who were republicans when it was something to be a republican had left the party. It was largely on account of bossism by assumed leaders. Now I do not approve these acts. I think it better to stay in the party and attend conventions, and see that men are put in the lead who have the interest of the people and party at heart, men who will not use their position for their own personal interest. Now, Mr. Powell will undoubtedly come to the front asking for a vindication by you of his stewardship while in office by re-electing him. Now are you willing to do that after he declares himself that there is no honor in politics? I think if we act with judgment, we will go to the convention and place some man in the chair who has at least not been tried and found wanting. I think it is to the interest of the party to turn down a man when he is found to be corrupt. Now, I do not wish to be understood as making a fight on Mr. Vail, for I am not, and I think he will make a good postmaster. He has made some valuable improvements in the office and the management I believe is satisfactory. In conclusion, I will say to those who were faithful to me to the end, that I appreciate your good will and faithfulness, and I believe that when you recommended me for postmaster, you were honest and believed I was most entitled to the position of the three candidates, because I had been much longer a republican and was the soldier candidate, and it has always been claimed that was sufficient, all else being equal. But you will notice that there was a soldier candidate at each of the three presidential offices in the county, every one of whom was sat down upon by the appointing power of our party, whereas in the same offices under Cleveland, there was one soldier candidate and he got the appointment. Now Powell, Lafferty and Belch knew who was supporting me, and when they sat down on me, they virtually said, "Your wishes are worthy of no consideration." Will we stand it to be ignored? I say no. Ask Belch why the school election went as it did; he perhaps understands it. I am not discouraged with humanity. Better men than me have been betrayed. Have we not got the record of Judas, Benedict Arnold and a host of others? Yet we must still have faith in humanity, the country is full of good honest men. Let us stick to the ship, and when we find a man without honor, turn him down, and try another. Now to sum up the whole matter: if the appointment had been made in harmony with the republican practice, Jones would have been appointed, he having a majority of the central committee. If it had been made in harmony with the will of the people set forth in my petition signed as before stated, I would have been appointed. All this was well known at Washington, and by Matthews and Powell, as they felt their prerogative to say who should serve us. Vail's support as I understand by committee, was confined to Ottawa. Matthews being the chief central power. Now the question is, should a man be kept in power by a party who will use the party to further his own personal interests or that of his special friends against the express will of the party. In this particular case, we are to be congratulated upon securing so efficient a postmaster here. We might have fared much worse at risk hands. I don't think we ought to risk again. What Lafferty, Belch or Powell got in return for their betrayal of my confidence if anything, I do not know. One thing we do know, Lafferty's son was in the postoffice awhile at first, but he is not there now. If that was his reward it seems pretty cheap, yet I do not know. We have heard of the man who sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. O, what a legacy to leave to a son to know that his first position in life was secured at the price of his father's principle. What shall I say of the price? Nothing. Where there is but little given there should be but little required.

Liquozone Cost $100,000

Yet We Will Buy a 50c. Bottle and Give it to You.

This company, composed of business, professional and medical men of ability, paid $100,000 for the right to make Liquozone. That is the highest price ever paid for the rights in one country on any scientific discovery. It was paid by us, after years of experiment with it, because Liquozone alone can kill inside germs without killing the tissues, too. Nothing else can destroy the cause of any germ disease.

Liquid Oxygen.

Liquozone is simply liquid oxygen--no drugs, no alcohol in it. It is the discovery of Pauli, the great German chemist, who spent 20 years on it. His object was to get such an excess of oxygen in staple form into the blood that no germ could live in any membrane or tissue.

Liquozone does that. We spend 14 days in making each bottle of it, but the result is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill.

Kills All Germs.

Any drug that kills germs is a poison to you and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine never destroys inside germs. Liquozone kills them with oxygen--a tonic to you--the very source of vitality. It kills them because germs are vegetables.

There is no other medicine so effective in this terrible malady as Foley's Honey and Tar. It is a household favorite for throat and lung troubles, and as it contains no opiates or other poisons it can be safely given.

INJURIES

Retire Lou Laudick for the Season.

Lou Laudick, of Lima, who has been one of the mainstays of the Kenyon college foot ball team this season, is laid up with injuries which will prevent him from taking part in the games yet to be played. During practice he had his collar bone broken and an ankle severely sprained and previous to this had his nose put out of joint. It will be as great a disappointment to his Lima friends and admirers, as it is to him, to learn of the accident and realize that the fast Kenyon team will be crippled on account of his absence from it.

ROVING BAND OF INDIANS

On the Warpath. Sheriff and Three Deputies Killed.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 2.—Sheriff Miller and three of his deputies are reported killed, one deputy wounded, and three Indians killed and seven wounded in a fight, which has taken place, near the Bad Land creek, forty miles north of Lusk, Wyo., between a roving band of Crow Indians who had been slaughtering game, and resisted arrest. It is not known whether an ambushade was laid for the officers on Lightning creek, the scene of the battle, or whether the Indians resisted arrest, but meagre details indicate the former. Several posses have started after the Indians and the governor may order out the military. The Indians who took part in the battle near Cheyenne river, are now hurrying towards the bad lands, where they will be practically secure from arrest.

The information in the governor's hands is to the effect that the Indians are Sioux, from Pine Ridge Agency, but another report says they are Crows from the Montana reservation.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, D. C. Nov. 2.—Ohio
rain tonight and Tuesday.

Arrange your day's work so you can get to the polls early to vote.

There doesn't seem to be much room in the columns of the republican organ for any body but Bentley.

Congress will meet in extra session on Monday and Hanna can tell his ship subsidy boys how it happened.

Vote for Barr for a second term.
He has made a clean record as a capable, courteous and honest official.

The people in this county are going to let well enough alone by casting enough democratic votes to elect the entire democratic ticket.

The people of Allen county will make no mistake in electing Minor C.
Crossley to the office of county treasurer.
His private and business life
has been one of the highest credit,
and as a public official he will serve
with distinction.

If you want your taxes increased,
the privileges of your streets given to a favored few, and a continuation of three cents a mile railroad fare, vote for Belch. If you want home rule in the fullest sense, equality in taxation,

and a two cent fare on railroads, vote
for Hon. John W. Manges.

Go to the court house tomorrow morning and ascertain how much your taxes have increased under the new code and then go to the polls and vote for Manges who will vote in the legislature to repeal that iniquitous piece of legislation and to reduce your taxes. A vote for Belch is a vote to amend the code law as it now exists, so that it will put the people more in the power of the Boss than they now are.

There has been a good deal of turnover and bad blood among republicans
over the distribution of the corruption fund. The first bunch that came had twenty two hundred dollars in it, and the story goes that it was all placed for the benefit of Bentley. This leaked out, and there were many counsels of war held.
Hanna was advised of the internal trouble and to heal the breach he sent an additional eighteen hundred dollars, which has found more general distribution. But four thousand dollars will not save the day.

A DISHONEST ATTACK.

Under the head "Bankrupt," Sunday's issue of the Republican-Gazette, made an attack on democratic rule in Allen county, and in maintenance of its usual custom, resorted to glaring falsehood.

The county treasury is not bankrupt. A recent examination was made by a commission consisting of republicans and democrats, and under oath, they stated there was a cash balance in the treasurer's custody of county funds amounting to $43,781.77.
Almost as much money as the republican committee has had for a corruption fund in this county.

The county does not owe $40,000.
Its debt is just one half that, and that will be paid when due in March, with our issuing bonds, as this city has done under republican rule. Compare the $20,000 county debt with the hundreds of thousands the city owes because of republican extravagance and a republican municipal code.

The county is not robbing the city.
In fact it is doing for the city that which it does not have to do in oportioning to the city, a portion of the road fund collected since April, the city has received $17,500 from the county commissioners for use on streets of Lima, some of which is undermined being used to pay the city force which is idle today.

The city of Lima gets its just proportion of every fund. Out of the bridge fund alone it received at the August settlement, $4,502.07. There is no question about republicans wanting to break into the court house.
They want to fasten on the county
the same graft, and bossism that rules in the city, where a $58,000 shortage was found by the sinking fund trustees,
and which no one can explain.

JAMES PHALEN IN 1902 HAD TO PAY TAXES TO THE AMOUNT OF $19.56. IN 1903, UNDER THE CODE
AND ON THE SAME VALUATION,
HE PAYS $25.46. A VOTE FOR MANGES MEANS THE REPEAL OF THE CODE LAW.

DIRECT LEGISLATION.

The Direct Legislation League of Ohio, non-partisan in its official make-up has asked the candidates for legislative office, in all the counties and districts of the state to use all honorable means to secure a modification of this state's representative system by the adoption of direct initiative, the optional referendum and the recall. Request for a pledge of support for these changes was sent to every candidate for representative and senator in Ohio, without regard to politics, in the hope that sufficient could be found willing to return to the people for their approval all legislation before it finally became a law. Mr. Belch positively refused, believing as he does that the acts of a republican legislature should not be questioned. Hon. S. D.
Crites, from whom no cleaner, or more capable man lives in this senatorial district, and who is the democratic candidate for state senator, pledged himself to unequivocally give the modification his support firm in the belief that his country had not quite reached that stage of monarchy, under republican rule where the people had no rights left. Hon. John W.
Manges gave the League his decided promise to aid in giving the people
the direct legislation asked for.

D. A. HADSELL IS ON THE CITY
DUPLICATE WITH PROPERTY
VALUED AT $2770. HIS TAXES
IN 1902 WERE $80.88. IN 1903,
WITH ONE YEAR OF THE CODE,
HIS TAXES ARE $105.28.

The Franklin club will meet with Mrs. George Fisher, of east Market street, Tuesday afternoon.

PEOPLE WILL WIN THE FIGHT

Hanna and Ship Subsidy Steal
Will Go Down In Defeat.

MONOPOLY VS. COMMON RIGHTS.

Brief Resume of the Campaign In the Buckeye State—Hanna's Fight
For Privilege and Monopoly Contrasted With Johnson's Fight For the People—Plan to Steal the Canals.
Cox's Price to Support Hanna.
Home Rule and Just Taxation Will Triumph.

The result of this campaign is now up to the people. The election is on Tuesday. Every citizen of Ohio, Republican and Democrat, should go to the polls and vote. It is the highest duty of citizenship.

Fight for the People's Rights.

Tom L. Johnson, for the Democratic party, has led in a great fight for the rights of the people against Senator Hanna and the other false leaders of the Republican party. Mayor Johnson has gone before the people with plain, straightforward issues. He has made charges against Senator Hanna's public record that have not been denied. Senator Hanna, on the contrary, has made a campaign teeming
with villification of Mayor Johnson,
and has not dared to answer the latter's charges. He has dragged from the tomb the mutilated body of the murdered president, William McKinley, and has endeavored to win votes by exposing the gaping wounds of the man whose assassination all citizens,
Democrats and Republicans, deeply mourn.

Afraid to Debate.

Senator Hanna has refused to meet his opponent, John H. Clarke, in public debates on the issues of the campaign. Likewise, has the Republican candidate for governor run away from Mayor Johnson.

Monopoly vs. the People.

Mayor Johnson has conducted a campaign for Home Rule, Just Taxation, Two-Cent Steam Railroad Fare
and the breaking up of the corrupt alliance that exists between certain Republican leaders and the privileged interests of the state. Senator Hanna has conducted a campaign for Columbus Rule of Local Communities,
Unjust Taxation, Against Two-Cent
Steam Railroad Fare, for the corrupt alliance between himself and the privileged interests and in favor of the ship subsidy bill as a steal, and Congressman Burton, of Cleveland, Hanna's home city, has denounced
the ship subsidy bill as a steal, and
for that reason the Republican committee has not assigned him to speak in the state campaign.

Ship Subsidy Steal.

Senator Hanna's chief work as United States senator has been for the ship subsidy bill, which would cost the people of Ohio nearly $10, 000,000 a year and the people of the United States nearly $200,000,000.
This vast sum Hanna would take from the people and turn into the coffers
of J. Pierpont Morgan and Hanna's friend, Griscom, president of the ship trust.

Protected Private Interests.

As United States senator, Hanna has taken good care of his private business interests, never hesitating
to use his official power to that end.

Crime Against the People.

His greatest crime against the people of Ohio was when he used his power as senator to prevent his state railway monopoly from being taxed on the same basis as the property of home owners and farmers. His railroad in Cleveland is worth over $10,000,000. It is taxed for $1,000,000, or less than 10 per cent of its value.
Mayor Johnson's tax board increased the valuation to $5,500,000, or a little less than 60 per cent. Senator Hanna had the State Board of Equalization remit the increased valuation, thus throwing the burden upon the small property owners of Cleveland and Cuyahoga county and the balance of the state. Two months ago Hanna's road was consolidated with the other company, and it was turned in for $10,400,000, Hanna still retaining the majority of the stock.

Obstructed Three-Cent Fare.

Then to prevent the construction of a three-cent fare street railroad in Cleveland to compete with his five-cent monopoly Hanna tore down the Cleveland city government as well as the government of every city in the state.

"Boss" Cox's Plan.

He then had the legislature adopt the costly and corrupt "Boss" Cox plan of government, under which dishonest public officials can rob the taxpayers of thousands of dollars.
This is in part Hanna's record, and for these shameful acts he asks the people of Ohio to endorse him.

Against Two-Cent Fare.

In the present campaign Hanna has declared emphatically against two-cent steam railroad fare, which would benefit all the people. He says the reduction in fare would lower the wages of the railroad men. The agency above that in New York and Michigan, where recent fare is required by law to be less than the railroad men are higher than in Ohio. He bravely asserts that if returned to the senate he will force through the ship subsidy steal at any cost.

Elected on Bribery.

Senator Hanna was elected to the United States senate through the most flagrant bribery ever perpetrated to the state of Ohio. Part was money bribery. Part consisted of federal jobs. In a recent speech at Youngstown he alluded over the fact that he had given federal jobs
to many of the members of the Ohio legislature, who had been "persuaded" to change their minds and vote for him.

To Steal the Canals.

In an effort to insure his re-election Senator Hanna has entered into another shameful conspiracy—this time with "Boss" Cox, the notorious politician, of Cincinnati. It is nothing less than a deal to steal the canals of Ohio worth millions of dollars for "Boss" Cox and his gang.
This was Cox's price for his support of Hanna in this campaign. Unless the people of Ohio rise up and rebuke these unscrupulous political leaders, it is quite probable that this high-handed steal will be carried through within six months after the election.

Threatens the People.

Hanna has proclaimed from every stump that calamity will follow Democratic success in Ohio this fall. In other words, if he is not permitted to continue to manipulate the people in his own private interests he will destroy the prosperity of the country.
He does not say that what little increase of wages now paid is more than eaten up by the increased cost of living. He does not explain why the steam railroads under Republican rule have already laid off 15 per cent of their employees. He does not explain the cause of the recent big bank failures in Baltimore, Pittsburgh and other cities. Why do the steam railroads of Ohio evade nearly $5,000,000
every year?

Soft Coal Famine.

Nor does he explain why his soft coal trust will shortly lay its heavy hand upon the people of Ohio the same as was done last winter. Raise your voices for Hanna in November and his coal trust will raise your prices in December.

Johnson in Cuyahoga County.

Ordinarily the judgment of a man's neighbors is the best evidence of his worth. In Cuyahoga county where Hanna and Johnson are best known
the people have sustained Mayor
Johnson in five successive elections.
Five times has Senator Hanna been repudiated. This should be a message to the people of Ohio. Mayor Johnson has won in Cleveland and Cuyahoga county against the heaviest odds ever encountered. Senator Hanna has used a corruption fund without limit. But the people of his home city could not be bought. His rebuke at the hands of Cuyahoga county's voters this fall will be administered in no uncertain manner.

"Boodle" the Argument.

Hanna this fall is using both boodle
and threats. From the vast corruption fund contributed by the privileged interests who are exploiting the people Hanna is doling out contributions—under the guise of charity—to all the benevolent and charitable institutions of the state. While he thinks that he can gain the political support of high-minded people
by this despicable method he insults the citizenship of the recipients. His agents are trying to coerce the workingmen of the state to vote for him.
Hanna threatens from the stump to take away their jobs if they don't.
The steel trust in Ohio, the Standard Oil trust and all the other trusts
have enlisted under Hanna's banner because they recognize in him their champion.

Just a word about the Republican candidate for governor. He is also a monopolist like Senator Hanna. He is principal owner of the Cleveland Belt Line Steam railroad. Its value is over $1,000,000. It is listed for taxation on the Cuyahoga county duplicate for just $10,000.

Democratic Campaign Manly.

Mayor Johnson and John H. Clarke have conducted a straightforward and manly campaign, bringing a message of truth, plainly stated, to the people.
Senator Hanna has conducted a campaign in the interests of monopoly and trusts and the ship sub- sidy steal.
Will the people submit to further deprivation of their rights? The people's eyes are being opened to the facts. They realize that they are being imposed upon by the false leaders who are betraying the party of Lincoln.

The People Will Win.

This contest for the rights of the people was begun by Mayor Johnson
three years ago. It will end on Nov.
3. The people will be victorious.
They will come into their own.

SMASH THE COAL COMBINE.

If you want to help break up the unholy alliance between the Hocking Valley and the Ohio Central railroads and 16 of J. P. Morgan's coal mines in the Hocking valley, for which Myron T. Herrick was a dummy director last year, you should vote for Tom L.
Johnson and the entire Democratic state and county ticket.

The more the people are informed as to the conduct of the shipbuilding trust, the less confidence they feel in the conduct of other great financial concerns.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE

It is Surely Coming In Ohio
On Tuesday.

CHAIRMAN SALEN'S STATEMENT.

No Democrat Should Fail to Vote,
For This is the First State Election
In Many Years in Which His Vote
Will Count.

To the Democrats of Ohio.

After years of discouraging defeats,
after campaign on campaign in which the party lacked the courage of aggressiveness or was disheartened by the impossibility of success, the Democracy of Ohio has this fall passed through a campaign in which every true member was summoned to action and thrilled by the brave leadership of Tom L. Johnson.

Hanna refused to debate because he dare not face the issues of the Democratic party—issues that applied to a state campaign, vital to every voter of Ohio. But Hanna was forced to show his "pat hand." The madder he got the more clearly he demonstrated that the "principles" which actuated the present management of the Republican party were Ship Subsidy, Railroad Franchises
and the Hoarding of Trusts—that it stood, in fact, for the one issue of making the rich richer and the poor poorer—that public office was a private grab.

If the Democrats of Ohio will turn out on Tuesday, there will be enough liberty-loving and self-respecting Republicans to join with them in the overthrow of the Hanna oligarchy
in Ohio politics.

Put in a day at the polls on Tuesday.

ONE YEAR Of Unqualified Success.

The Whitney & Currier Co.
Review the Past Year
With Pleasure.

Piano Buyers Have Appreciated the Coming to Lima of a Strictly Honorable Piano House.

One year has now past since we located a permanent branch piano store in Lima; and we look back upon the results with great pleasure. We were satisfied from the first, that fair and honorable dealings in well known high grade pianos, and reasonable prices, with a large stock, would win in Lima as elsewhere, regardless of anything that might oppose.

A large number of pianos have been sold by us during the past year in Allen County, including such renowned names as Steinway, Knabe, Whitney & Currier, Boardman & Gray, Kimball, Ludwig, Marshall & Wiedel, Heller & Co., and many others.
We do not elevate a piano beyond its proper rank in our talk to buyers.
Each instrument is here placed in its proper station with a price exactly to correspond with its quality—This is our method, others can do as they choose.

It does not follow that because we quote low prices on pianos that we do not give easy terms to buyers, for we are always glad to do so.
We are in Lima to stay!
We naturally expect a still larger business the coming year, and shall continue to make such inducements to piano buyers that they cannot afford to purchase before inspecting our stock.

JURY

Has Been Given a Short Rest.

Will Return

To Take Up Criminal Cases Thursday.

Cretsinger Divorce Suit, in Which the Wife Is Plaintiff, Up for Trial

at the Husband Makes a Defense and Denies the Allegations—Another Grand Jury Victim Pleads Guilty.

The petit jury will have no work to perform until Thursday. It was necessary as has been stated, to continue the cases of the boys charged with having broken into the Faurot house, until the recovery of the Armstrong, and Wm. Nichols, whose trial was set for Wednesday, pleaded guilty to horse-stealing.

Driller Brings Suit.
Hopland & Rogers have begun an action in foreclosure on behalf of James M. Thomas, who has a claim against Samuel Lippert, for $1,664.19, according to the account exhibited. The defendant owes the plaintiff $1,619 for drilling Elmer E. DeLong's No. 1; $622.50 on H. K. Nungesser's No. 1 and $675.50 on Mary Mohr's No. 2. The Central Coal Co., Buckeye, Ohio, and W. R. Jones, agent, Lippert, are named party defendants.

Foreclosure Suit.
Lima Home & Savings Association Isaac Hefer, is the style of a foreclosure suit filed Saturday, by Isaac and Lippencott. Judgment asked for $722 and the property involved is located on Bellefontaine.

Fined for the Offense.
Harry M. Hall appeared in court yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to charge of adultery, for which he is indicted by the grand jury. Hall is married man and lived in Pennsylvania, but he came to Lima and associated himself with another woman. He gave bond for his appearance and today was fined $25 and which he will pay.

Served His Sentence.
Joe Elliott was released from jail this morning after serving 10 days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was also assessed a fine of $5 and which he paid.

Cretsinger Divorce Suit.
At two o'clock this afternoon, the trial of Mary A. vs John Cretsinger was called. The plaintiff charges habitual drunkenness and neglect of duty, and says that, though they live in the same house have barely spoken to each other more than two years.

The couple were married Oct. 5, 1878, and have eight children all of whom are living. The defendant is an ex-member of the police force, and is now employed at the C. H. & D. shops. He is a general denial to his wife's allegations, and claims that she neglected both himself and his family to frequent dances and parties. Cretsinger is represented by J. Armstrong and James Weadock, the defendant by John Klatte.

Election returns will be heard at the court over leased wire.

BURN'S KINGS DAUGHTERS.

They hold their regular business meeting on Wednesday evening, Nov. 4, at room No. 5, Trinity church. As is important business to be transacted, it is desired that each member attend.

SECRETARY.

BELCH NOT SANGUINE.

Amos L. Belch, candidate for representative on the republican ticket, says that he is beaten. He will hold his own party, in a recent interview. He states that he did not seek re-election, that he was in Kentucky, and positively refused to let his name placed before the republican convention. He was surprised, however, to find that he had been nominated. He claims he has a hard fight, and if beaten this time he says he will retire from politics. It is apparent he is not counting on the election. Mr. Belch is in the city today, spending the day with Senator Hanna, and is expected to return to his home in Adams county to bring it into line with his interests.

Thief Captured at Dayton

After a Raid

Made on Several Lima Business Houses.

Bert Tate Is the Name Given by an All-round Thief and Shoplifter,

And Detective Hugh Patton, Who Had Him Spotted While Working Here, Will Bring Him Back for Trial.

Detective Hugh Patton left for Dayton, today, and will return with a prisoner. The man who is wanted here, is Bert Tate, who was picked up in the Gem city, by the police, after a description had been sent from here.

Tate is an all-round thief and shoplifter, and no sooner had he landed here than he was at once put down on the suspicious list. It was not long before he began to ply his trade, but before he could be rounded up, he scented danger, and took French leave.

Complaints came of missing articles and from one clothing store, five pairs of pants and an overcoat were taken. Tate did not get far enough away to elude capture, and as Dayton has long been a mecca for men of his class, detective Patton rightfully concluded he would be located there. Word was received yesterday, that he was under arrest and would be held until some one came after him.

PIANOS.

SMITH & NIXON.

What a Smith & Nixon really is.

The Smith & Nixon Grand in an up right case is the only piano of its kind in the world.

It has no equal. It has no competitor. There can be none other like it, because its distinguishing features are protected by patents.

It is the only Upright piano from which you can get the musical quality of a Grand.

The entire secret is in its interior construction. Outwardly it appears the same as any high-class Upright. But in its interior it is different. It is constructed upon the same system as the three-cornered Parlor Grands. Touch a key, and rich, full, resonant sound will at once proclaim its wonderful qualities.

The result is just what you would expect from a Grand.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these noxious germs are busy at work.

LIZARDS IN SAMOA.
The Way They Shed Their Tails and Fool the Kittens.
A writer of Samoa writes in an interesting way of the lizards, little fellows about two inches long, prettily colored in a light and dark shade of brown. They can run up a window pane quite as easily as can the flies on which they feed.
"When alarmed, the lizards will take like a flash of light and will take the most reckless leaps. I have seen them land safe at the end of a twenty foot jump. Yet when cornered they have no hesitation in snapping off the most of their tails.
"That was a maddening puzzle to my small cat. The sight of a mangle anywhere was an immediate challenge to the kitten. She would immediately start on the hunt, for the most part a fruitless chase, for the little lizard could skulk off faster than two cats could pursue. Yet when the kitten did succeed in landing on the lizard there followed a scene of bewilderment. The mo' invariably snapped off its tail, which was left wriggling in one part of the veranda, while the lizard ran off a short distance and awaited developments.
"The kitten never knew whether to catch the lizard or the tail. If the mo' moved, the kitten went for it, but she always stopped short to keep an eye on the wriggles of the tail. As soon as she turned back to take care of the tail the mo' got in motion and had to be looked after. Hundreds of times I have watched the dilemma, and the ending was always the same—the lizard got away and the kitten had to be content with the bony tail. But there were lots of lizards about my house sprouting new tails."—Youth's Companion.

Instinct of Animals.
The instinct whereby wild creatures detect those of the human species who are likely to be hostile to them and those who may be regarded as harmless is of so subtle a quality that it almost appears to partake of the nature of metaphysics. In the nesting season plovers will actually buffet the angler who is fishing too close to their broods, but by the date of the shooting season they would not allow him to get within two fields of them. The wood pigeon seems to know exactly the range of the modern fowling piece and will flash boldly past at an interval of 100 yards and upward, but is careful quickly to put a tree between himself and a sportsman if disturbed at any range within gunshot. The fox knows that he is sacred from guns and will undauntedly seize a fallen pheasant and decamp with it within twenty paces of a retriever. He is quite aware that the latter is no foxhound.

The Habit of Acquisition.
"It beats me," said the philosopher, "that people will keep piling up money long after they have several times as much as they'll ever be able to use."
Then he went out for a walk. Passing a bookstore, he saw half a dozen very cheap books, which, however, he knew he hadn't time to read and doubt very much if he ever would have time to read. But they were cheap, and he bought them and sent them home to be added to his library, which already contained several times as many books as he would ever have time to read.
Nevertheless he continued to wonder at the dangerous accumulation of money.—New York Times.

Tennison's Pipe.
Everybody knows that Tennison was a great smoker. We notice that one of his pipes was presented by the house-keeper at his home at Freshwater to Mr. Kelsey of Yarmouth in 1875. There is a tradition that when the pipe had smoked a clay once he put it on one side and took a new one. This is scarcely borne out by the pipe in question, which from its color must have been smoked not once, but many times. It was bought for a trifle more long since at a sale in the Isle of Wight by Mr. Spencer of New Oxford street. It has suffered in the wars, having been broken across the stem. It is now enshrined in a glass case.—Westminster Gazette.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.
New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following. A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very hard cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. They did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

ESTIMATES ARE LARGER.
Erdicott After Looking Naval Stations Over His Chance to Spend Money.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Rear Admiral Erdicott, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, in his annual report to the Secretary of the navy, says several of the yards, especially these at New York and Norfolk, are becoming congested, owing to their limited area, and that unless some action is taken, looking to their relief, their efficiency will become restricted.
The estimates for the coming fiscal year it is explained, provide for continuing the work on dry docks at Charleston, New York and Norfolk, and the steel floating dock at Cavite, P. I. and that with the exception of the estimate for the improvements of the water front at the New York dock, will require all of $1,000,000. Those are among the largest items for which estimates are submitted. Attention is called to the need of more extensive accommodations for the berthing and storage of torpedo boats, and it is suggested that the construction of a small dry dock at Norfolk and other yards, for the docking of the largest number of small boats of the navy, would be an economical provision. Many works of improvement are necessary at the Charleston yard if it is to be developed into a station of moderate efficiency, says the report, also at New Orleans.
Admiral Erdicott says a dry dock of the largest capacity should be constructed at once at Pensacola, which yard he believes would be of undoubted importance in the future. He advises that a new dry dock should also be required at the Puget Sound yard. The great need of ad-

Melville's drug store and that their use had radically disposed of pain across the back and the muscles toward the shoulder blades. A constant aching of the loins was very depressing and when freed of the annoyance I was only too pleased to make known the means employed. It is now more than two years since I first publicly expressed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and I emphatically declare that the said opinion is stronger today touching their merits than it was when I gave it for publication."

The other day a little red faced Irishman approached a postoffice which had three letter boxes outside. One was labeled "City," another "Domestic," and the third "Foreign." He looked at the three in turn and then, as a puzzled expression crossed his face, scratched his head.
"Faith," he was heard to mutter, "I don't know in which way to put this letter! Sure, Katie's a domestic, and she lives in the city, all right, an' she's a furrier, too; but, begorra, I dunno how the thing can go in both of the three holes at wance!"—Columbus Jester.

The Real Condition.
The teacher of grammar and rhetoric wrote a sentence on the blackboard and then called upon William.

William surveyed it dubiously for a moment; then a flash of inspiration showed him his path.
"John can ride the horse if the horse wants him to," he wrote.

THE WHISTLING CURE.
When the throes of indigestion and the qualms of dyspepsia are making your life miserable, just purse the lips and whistle a brisk, merry tune.
Not a muffled, doleful, half hearted whistle, but a whistle so deep and voluminous that the whole house will be filled with the sound.
Don't be afraid somebody will hear you. Let them hear you. It will do them good. It will enliven and cheer them while it cures you.
There is something about a good, well-sounded whistle that sets the digestive apparatus to work in a more natural wholesome manner than all the pepsin tablets and digestive pills on the market.
Indigestion and dyspepsia always make one feel gloomy and depressed and morbid and blue. Everything seems to go wrong, and doubtless you won't feel one bit like whistling. But no matter, whistle anyhow.
If possible, go out in the fresh air and do your whistling. If you can't go outdoors, just open the window wide and whistle with all your might. Any odd tune will do, so you put life and vigor into it.
Whistle, whistle, whistle. Keep it going. Don't get tired. Go on with all your might. Harder, harder, harder.
The first thing you know the stomach will have righted itself. The liver will be working good and strong, the blood will be bounding through your veins, your brain will be clear and vigorous and you will feel twenty years younger. All because you have whistled away the indigestion, the dyspepsia, and the blues.
Whistling is one of the best tonics in the world. It is far better to whistle away all your petty ailments and little worries and perplexities a great deal easier to float them away to the tune of "Nancy Lee" or "Dolly Gray" than to sit down and try to drown them by swallowing a lot of the doctor's nasty, poisonous medicines.
A great deal better and a whole lot cheaper—Medical Talk.

Democrats and All Other Fair Minded

Hanna-Belch Crowd Is Attempting to Injure Chances of Hon. John W. Manges by Tell-

York Saltwater Bill.

Taking advantage of the inability of Hon. W. Manges to get over the county and defend his interests among the voters, the members of the Hanna-Belch crowd began Saturday and yesterday to circulate some campaign lies, hoping thereby to injure Mr. Manges at a time too late for either the candidate or his friends to nail the lies and establish the truth in the minds of the voters. In an effort to influence the oil producers and the oil field workers against Mr. Manges the word was sent out that he, while on the last legislature, had introduced the anti-saltwater bill, a measure intended to prohibit the oil producers from permitting salt water from the oil wells to run upon vegetation or in the open streams of the state.

This malicious story might have done some injury to Mr. Manges were it not for the fact the majority of the oil producers and oil field workers already had knowledge of the real facts in the matter. The anti-saltwater bill was introduced in the legislature by Representative York, of Ottawa county, and it was through the efforts of Mr. Manges, who promptly sent information to his constituents, that both the farmers and the oil men of Allen county were given an opportunity to be heard before the committee to which the measure was referred and it was Mr. Manges who, at the request of the farmers and oil men of Allen county, assisted in defeating the bill in the committee.

Certain political vandals are also endeavoring to influence Mr. Manges on the ground that he introduced a twenty-five per cent garnishee bill. If that measure had become a law a garnishee suit would be less expensive to the man sued than under the present law which collects costs with each ten per cent collection of the debt.

Will Berry, driver of J. F. Seitzmaier's milk wagon, who wanted for stealing $95 from his employer, seems to have made good his escape, as the police have been informed that he got away on a west bound train sometime Saturday night.

Several conflicting reports have been made but all tend to the same conclusion that he intended to make use of the money to fix himself in some distant part of the country. It is said that he made his way from where he hired the wagon to Lima, and there boarded a Pennsylvania train, but another report is that he was the risk of coming to Lima, Saturday evening, where he purchased a suit of clothes, hat and shoes, and then left over the Erie, on the midnight train.

The police have instructions to apprehend him, and if caught, he will be brought back to Lima to answer for the theft.

The boy said he was "dared" to turn in the alarm, but being too small to reach the box, he was lifted up to it by the Morris boy. The offense is a serious one and the boys will likely be made an example of.

Two well matched football teams played an exciting game at Celina, yesterday in the presence of a large crowd. The Lima players were not strangers to the gridiron, but the team had had no practice together, and lacked the promptness which the signals demanded. The first half stood 0 to 0, and Celina put the ball over in the second, with but a minute and a half to play, by bucking the center. A failure to kick goal left the score 5 to 0.

Citizens Now Ready to Bal-

Good Speeches Delivered by Hon.
Benton Childers, of Columbus,
and Hon. John W. Kern, of Indianapolis.

Notwithstanding the fact that the night was Halloween with scores of counter attractions throughout the city, the democratic meeting held in the Faurot opera house Saturday evening was very well attended and the enthusiastic audience fully appreciated the two excellent speeches that were delivered by the two distinguished orators who were present.

The speakers were Hon. John W. Kern, of Indianapolis, and Hon. Benton Childers of Columbus. Mr. Childers was first introduced by vice chairman John N. Hutchinson, of the democratic county executive committee, and he proved himself an able speaker. His address was a scholarly one in which the principles of the democratic party and the planks in the platform of this campaign were thoroughly and intelligently discussed. He was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause from the audience and although he spoke for more than an hour the big crowd remained in close attention.

Mr. Kern the Indiana statesman, was received with applause when Mr. Hutchinson introduced him and he also proved to the well pleased audience that he is an orator of ability. He was suffering intensely from an attack of neuralgia and did not speak for more than thirty minutes, but his remarks were full of vim, fire and argument that increased the enthusiasm of his auditors, and it was with reluctance that the crowd permitted him to close his remarks. He defined and denounced Hannaism, class legislation of the Hanna Cox kind and republican misrepresentation in the most forcible terms.

Another excellent meeting was held Saturday evening, at Kempton, where Judge A. D. Miller, Kent W. Hughes and William Rusler addressed a large crowd of Amanda township citizens.

Attorney Ben. F. Welty and J. W. Kilgore went to Lockport, Shelby county, and addressed a meeting of several hundred democrats Saturday night.

This evening, Messrs. M. L. Mayer, N. W. Cunningham and J. W. Kilgore will address a meeting at West Cairo, Messrs. H. S. Prophet, Jas. J. W. Woodcock will address a meeting in Perry township and Messrs. William Rusler, J. H. Klatte and William Klingler will speak at Lafayette.

THE STAGE.

Picturesque highwaymen always form good subjects for the stage and in this respect no better choice could be made than that of the James Boys as the subject for an exciting and thrilling production. This is why "The James Boys in Missouri" which will be seen at the Faurot tonight has made such a fine record. The author of this melodrama chose incidents from the lives of these noted bandits with rare skill and with the striking stage setting for the play, the most elaborate ever carried. It is no wonder that this play is heralded as the treat of the season and has been so considered everywhere it has been produced.
